After identifying your company's hiring objectives, we invite only the most stunning candidates into your interview room. Here are four ways to move forward with your final nominee(s):

1. Temporary

Assignment-based candidates; hired to work on projects that might span from one day to several months.

2. Temp-to-Hire

They start as a contract employee so that you can examine their eligibility for full-time work.

3. Full-Time

If your candidate is a great fit, consider committing to a full-time contract.

4. Executive Search

We place the best and brightest individuals in leadership roles at premier apparel, cosmetics, and lifestyle companies throughout the United States and abroad.

Our team has filled warehouse manager, retail analyst, and technical designer positions in various sectors, including product development, manufacturing, public relations, and home goods.

Executive Search

CG Search is a market leader in constructing top-tier management teams. As a prominent executive search agency, we serve various clients, from well-known Fortune 100 organizations to cutting-edge start-ups. We place exceptional individuals in high-profile fields like finance, accounting, and C-suite leadership.

The CGC Difference

We were the first of our sort, founded in 1981 — a boutique agency with a solid commitment to personalized service and a sizable network of prominent clients and talent.

In contrast to larger, more faceless recruiting organizations, we treated and continue to treat each job seeker with individual attention, meeting with each candidate in person or remotely to better grasp their professional ambitions and aspirations.

Our purpose is to act as a support network, provide industry expertise, and encourage you as you embark on this adventure.
